Virgil H. Collins, a veteran of the Civil War, died Saturday morning at eight o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Viens, in Winoski, with whom he has made his home for the past year. Mr. Collins was stricken with apoplexy about a week ago, from which he failed to rally. He was 83 years of age and served in Company G, 5th infantry, during the rebellion. As far as known he has no relatives. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock from the house on West Spring street with interment in Green Mount cemetery.

The New Catholic Church at Randolph.

Services were held in the new Roman Catholic church at Randolph Sunday for the first time when mass was said at 10:30 o'clock in the morning and vespers at 7:30 in the evening.

The building, which occupies a commanding site on the brow of the hill overlooking Prospect and South Pleasant streets, is 27x71 feet, with a belfry rising twenty feet above the roof, and has a seating capacity of about 250 persons. It is wainscotted to the windows, and above the walls and ceiling are frescoed in a soft tone of yellow with a border, while the chancel is finished in a harmonizing shade of blue. The ceiling is not entirely finished, but when completed will be a well-built, commodious structure, worthy of the enterprise of the people and the zeal of the priest, the Rev. James L. Penders.

Two Large Barns Burned.

Two large barns with 75 tons of hay, 300 bushels of oats, and six young cattle were burned Friday night on Orville Allen's farm on Kibby's point, So. Hero. The cause of the fire is unknown. The loss will be heavy as the barns were large and recently built. The loss will be covered partially by insurance. The family had returned home about 11 o'clock from a sojourn and was going to bed when it was seen that the barn farthest from the house was on fire. The other barns were soon in flames and it was with difficulty that the livestock and contents were gotten out. The wind shifted in time to save the house which was not far from the barns.

St. Johnsbury House Changes Hands.

Herbert L. Doyle has leased the St. Johnsbury house of S. Stern, of Lyndonville and has taken possession. Mr. Doyle was formerly landlord of the Avenue house at St. Johnsbury, and for the past three years has been landlord of Hotel Low at Bradford. Fred N. Keeler, who has been landlord of the hotel for over three years, will remain in town for the present. He is undecided as to his future plans.

Long Sleep of Insane Asylum Inmate.

R. H. Moore of Concord, says that his son, John L. Moore, who was recently taken to the state hospital for the insane, at Waterbury, for the second time the past season, has slept one hundred days and nights, or more, without awakening. He said all the nourishment he received was through his nostrils and that he was very weak and low with but little chance for him to live long.

Land was out of Sight.

"Yes," said one of the traveling men who were telling stories in front of the hotel, "I was once out of sight of land on the Atlantic Ocean 21 days." "On the Pacific one time I didn't see land for 29 days," said another. "A little bald headed man tilted his chair against a post and knocked the ashes off his cigar." "I started across the Kaw River near Lawrence in a skiff once when I was a kid," he said, "and was out of sight of land before I reached the other side." "Aw, come off," came from one of the crowd. "The Kaw isn't more than 300 yards wide anywhere along near Lawrence."

"I didn't say it was," said the little man, quietly. "The skiff turned over and I sank twice."—Kansas City Times.

MEN ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause.

To treat Dandruff, and Falling Hair, with irritants or oils on which a parasite will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising.

You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.

You must kill the Dandruff Germ.

Newber's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing.

When the germ is removed, the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

Destroy the cause, you remove the effect.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

"Mixed."

Story sent in: A young man not a thousand miles from here went with his sister to a dry goods store. He purchased a pair of gloves for his sweetheart. The sister bought a pair of hose for herself. Of course the clerk got them mixed. The explosion came when the sweetheart opened the package and found a pair of long black stockings. She blushed, then she opened the note, and read the following tender lines: "I am sending you a little present. Oh, how I wish that no other hands than mine would be permitted to touch them after you put them on. But, alas, a score of fellows may touch them when I am not by your side, and other eyes may see them when you are on the street or at parties. I bought the longest pair I could get, and if they are too long you may let them wrinkle down. A great many girls I know wear them slipped down a little. Always wear them at parties. I want to see how they fit when I call Tuesday night. You can clean them easily, dear, with benzine if you leave them on till they dry. I hope that they are not too small. Blow them before you put them on." The young man did call Tuesday night to see how they fitted, but it is understood that he failed to win a home.—Atchinson Globe

A Double Hardship.

The following anecdote is told of a prominent Baptist minister, celebrated for his caustic wit:

He was speaking once at a dinner given to commemorate an important event in the history of New England, his text being, "The Pilgrim Fathers." "I have always," he said, "felt the deepest sympathy for the Pilgrim fathers, who suffered such extraordinary hardships in establishing a foothold in this country. But, sorry as I have felt for the Pilgrim fathers, I have felt still sorer for the Pilgrim mothers; for not only were they obliged to endure the same hardships, but they had also endured the Pilgrim fathers."—Harper's Weekly.
